Price Dropped Info

2024-01-12 - Patrick - Funktionen

Have you found the product you want, but it's still a little too expensive for you at the moment and you're happy to wait a little longer? In this case, simply add your name to the "Price Dropped" list and we will inform you fully automatically as soon as the price of the product you are looking at drops.

ATTENTION: Unfortunately, it's not just downwards, it may also be that products are not reduced or even become more expensive over time.

To activate the notification, simply click on "Tell me when the price drops" and enter your e-mail address.

You will receive a fully automated message as soon as the price falls below the price at the time you register for the function.
